Miranda and Jena
Room 7, Grade 4

We are very thankful for having a family that cares about us. That they provide us clothes, and celebrate our birthday parties. They help us with our needs too. They love us no matter what happens. We are also thankful for our grandparents and watching movies. We love our family!

Q. What's blue and covered with feathers?
A. A turkey holding its breath!

Loran and Conrad
Room 24, Grade 5

We have to do a project about bats. So far, we have done six pages in class. It was kind of interesting. We also did a diorama about spiders. There were some really neat ones and Conrad brought live spiders to the class, that was exciting! Loran went to California to visit his uncle. They went to a nice restaurant. Conrad is thankful for his family. Loran is thankful for life.

Why did the turkey cross the road?

Because it was the chickens day off!

Stories, poems, articles, and great jokes from student news reporters at Arbor Heights Elementary School in Seattle, WA
Editor: Mr. Ahlness

News from the classroom.....

Chelsea

Room 15, Grade 2

In class we are studying soil. The soils we are studying are clay, sand, and humus. In class we went to a play it was The Cat In The Hat. It was really fun.

What do turkeys like to do on sunny days?
 They like to go on a peck-nic.

Alex and Daniel

Room 19, Grade 1

In our class we have been doing art projects. We do tracing. We play mask games, we make books, and we have also been learning how you use the computers. Also Alex went to Disneyland and had a lot of fun. His favorite ride was Space Mountain. Daniel went to the YMCA.

Why do turkeys go "gobble, gobble"?

Because they haven't learned good table manners.

Austin and Salinna
 Room 23, Grades 4&5

We are thankful for the school. We like to read in our classroom.

Why did the turkey join a band?
 He had the drumsticks.

More classroom news.....

Sydney and Sahra
Room 9, Grade 3

We are learning science in class. We are excited because we are going to go on a field trip soon. We are learning about physical properties of rocks and minerals.

Why do turkeys go "gobble, gobble"?

Because they haven't learned good table manners!

Alana and Delaney
Room 21, Grade 5

In class we are learning about decimals. We are getting pretty good. We went on a field trip to the Lighthouse for the Blind. It was really interesting. We are also going on a field trip to Roosevelt High School to listen to a jazz band and then to see the Nutcracker. Alana and Delaney are thankful for having friends and family.

How do you make a turkey float?

Get two scoops of ice cream, add some root beer and a turkey.

Mariah and Nick
Room 22, Grades 4&5

We are working on our Personal Narratives. It is really FUN ! We are also working on land and water in science.

*Knock, knock.
Who's there?
Dewey.
Dewey who?

; your own size !

Color Mr. Turkey!

Even more classroom news.....

Danielle and José
Room 12, Grade 3

Last week we changed desks, and in art we painted. We also went to our website and made thankful writings. We also changed jobs. In Powerful Writers we are working on our seed ideas. We are also working really hard in math.

What do you get when you cross a turkey with an octopus?

Lots of drumsticks for Thanks-giving dinner!

Kindergarten, Room 4

Just before book character day all the children of room 4 helped design a face to carve in a big orange pumpkin we had in the room. We also had an opportunity to pull out the gooey pumpkin insides (YUCK). After the pumpkin was all cleaned we drew the face on the pumpkin with a marking pen and Mr. Wilkie cut his face out? After a few days our jack-o-lantern who we named Jack started to get a bit smelly, we decided to put him in the kindergarten garden to see what would happen to him. Mr. Larsen helped us carry Jack to the Kindergarten garden. Now once a week we walk through the garden to observe Jack. After we do our observations we go back to the room and draw a picture of him so we can keep track of his changes. If you would like to see Jack the pumpkin, look out the windows into the garden, next time you're in the library. The children of Room 4 would like to wish everyone a Happy Thanksgiving Holiday.

Why do turkeys go "gobble, gobble"?

You MUST know the answer by now!

Help the turkey escape into the woods
