Ethan and Ivy Grade 2, Room 18

On Tuesday, March 8 we had a Mardi Gras parade around the school. After the parade we had a party. With a king cake.

We are working on our Young Authors stories.

What do you get when you cross a pillowcase with a stone?

A sham-rock!

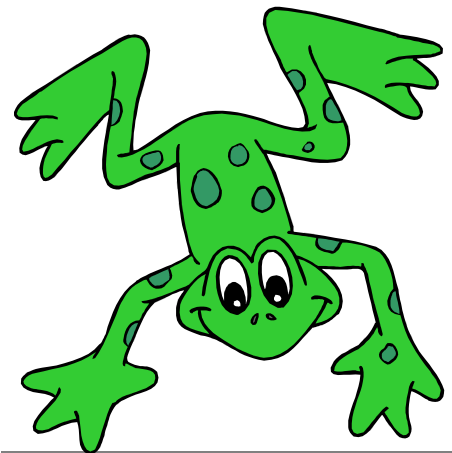

Mila and Victoria Room 13, Grade 2

We went to the Frye Art Museum. We did an art project there. We are learning about people in history, like Pocahontas. Pocahontas was born in Virginia in 1595.

Every Tuesday we do LFL (Learning for Life).

Why do frogs like St. Patrick's Day?

Because they're already wearing green!

Stories, poems, articles, and great jokes from student news reporters at Arbor Heights Elementary School in Seattle, WA

Casey, Noah, Harley, Andrea
Room 21, Grade 4

We are going to go to the second Global Reading Challenge. The Awesome People will be representing Arbor Heights, wish them luck!

We are learning about measuring angles in math, and we are close to finishing The Watsons Go to Birmingham.

The winners of the Global Reading Challenge are Sophie, Chase, Natalie, Sean, Daisy, Fathi, and Ruby!

What do you call a man with a green hat, a pot of gold, and black spots?

A Leopardchon!

Aden, Steph, and Ruby
Room 25, Grade 4

In reading we are reading Escaping the Giant Wave by Peg Kehret. On March 16 Ruby, Chase, Fathi, Nat, Daisy, and Sophie went to the downtown library to compete in the semi-finals. Also, the rest of Ms. Sato's and Ms. Boitano's are going to cheer them on. Ms. Sato's class can't wait!

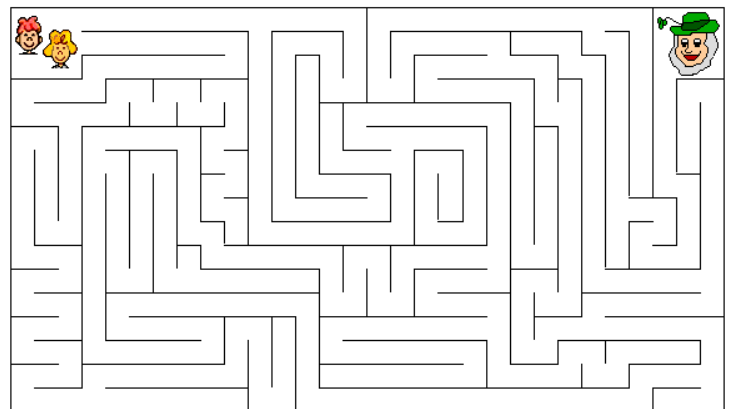

Steph is reading Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban. Ruby is not reading anything currently. Ayden is reading Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix.

We did our fable book report. How we presented it was we put on a puppet show! Ms. Sato said it was really good. We were the first to do a book report for our class. Ms. Sato said we were brave. The fable we did was "The Serpent and the Eagle".
