John and Cole Room 9, Grade 3

In class we are writing poems. In science we are learning about sound. In math we just got to unit 7.

Why did the leprechaun cross the road?

To get to the pot of gold!

Inside:

- Classroom news!
- St. Patrick's Day Jokes!

Ahlam and Adrian Grade 2, Room 18

We were Dr. Seuss crazy, and we're exploring volcanoes like Mt. St. Helens and Mt. Rainier. We're reading The Grufalo, and on Friday we're watching it. In writing, everybody is writing a Young Author's book—and Happy St. Patrick's Day!

Why did the leprechauns hide behind 4 leaf clovers and not 3 leaf clovers?

They needed all the luck they could get!

Rose and Ptolemy Room 10, Grade 3

In room 10 during science we are learning about sound. We learned that sound travels in waves, and we have learned several different ways to make sound.

For Young Author's Day we are all writing book reports on biographies. In the 4th grade math class we are studying maps and how to use the key on a map. We are very excited for Young Author's Day!

When is a potato not an Irish potato?

When it's a French fry!

Stories, poems, articles, and great jokes from student news reporters at Arbor Heights Elementary School in Seattle, WA

Even more classroom news....

Vivian and Caroline
Room 13, Grade 2

We are learning about X in class, like $3 \times 3 = 9$. We will get ice cream if we eat vegetables for a week. We will get them on March 22nd. We will go to the Frye Art Museum and make an art project, and we are learning about measuring in class.

What is Barney's favorite thing on St. Patrick's Day?

The Blarney Stone!

Ryan and Shire
Room 12, Grade 3

On March 15 we are going to celebrate St Patrick's Day. What we don't like about it is you can't pinch anybody.

We are starting our books on the computer. It is really fun, because we take the stories off of our blogs.

Today we are doing About the Author. It's where you write on the computer about yourself.

Knock, knock Who's there?

Irish

Irish who?

Irish you a Happy St Patrick's Day!

Taylor and Arianna
Room 25, Grade 4

In class we are doing our buffalo robes of history. We are also working on our Young Author's books. This month is Arianna's birthday. In class we are also doing food chemistry. In March we are doing book reports on fables. In class we are watching Old Yeller. We have no field trips planned. On March 15, it's BINGO Night and we are both going!

What kind of music does a Leprechaun like?

Shamrock, n Roll!

Room 21, Grade 4

Hi, it's Camryn. We are learning about long division and geometry. We are also getting ready for the MSP testing in April. Are you doing anything fun or exciting in your class? Unfortunately, we aren't having any fun or exciting field trips. I bet you do though. Have fun!

Hello, my name is Mariah. Are you doing anything in March? I am. I'm going to Sky High, and that's a place where a room is filled with trampolines, and it's so much fun!

What did one Irish ghost say to the other?

Top of the morning to you!

Global Reading Challenge!
