Savuth and Antjelina Room 22, Grades 3&4

We went on a field trip on March 8, 2000. It was very fun. We are going on another one on April 25, 2000 to see the Bravo Ballet. We are working on reducing fractions. It is fun.

If a rooster lays an egg right in the middle of a slanted roof, on which side will it fall?

Neither side. Roosters don't lay eggs!

Julia and Brian Grade 3, Room 12

On Friday the 3rd we went to Chinatown. We also went to Uwajimaya and got chopsticks. And then we went to Sun Ya. And we went to the park.

In art we made pinch pots. Julia made a candy dish and Brian made a pencil holder.

Who tells the best chicken jokes?

Comed!-HENS!

Stories, poems, articles, and great jokes from student news reporters at Arbor Heights Elementary School in Seattle, WA

News from the classroom.....

Emma and Denisha Room 9, Grade 3

The 17th of March is St. Patrick's Day. Tradition is to wear something green. If you don't, you're liable to get pinched. The green represents the green shamrocks or three leaf clovers of Ireland, where St Patrick was from.

We just went to Chinatown! We went to a fortune cookie factory, a store which had neat things, and a restaurant called Sun Ya. Did you know that the fortune cookie factory is mostly a noodle factory?

What did the judge say when the skunk came in the court?

Order in the court!!

Why did someone named Patty play a joke?

Because she was a leprechaun!

Taylor and Sara Room 19, Grade 1

We made Leprechauns for St. Patrick's Day. Our teacher put up a sign that says "Spring". We made pussy willows for spring. We are writing about kings and queens.

What do you call twins who never behave?

Double Trouble!

Teryn and Caitlin Room 14, Grade 2

For St. Patrick's Day we are making some leprechauns. And we are making leprechaun stories. We are also answering a question that asks. "How many leaves in 25 shamrocks?"

What's green and very dangerous?

Shark-infested lime Jell-O!

More classroom news.....

Tabby and Christina
Room 16, Grades 1, 2, & 3

We saw a puppet show. It was called "Piggy Gets Married". We are making paper mache puppets in class. Some of the puppets got mixed up because some of the kids have the same initials in their name. We will be giving a puppet show soon.

Even more classrooms news...

Lauren and Lindsay Room 25, Grades 4 & 5

We are going to the "Bravo Ballet" in April. It'll be fun. We are enjoying St. Patrick's Day. It's been a lot of fun. But you should be wearing green! Our fifth graders had a test already, too. It was so hard. We started a new book called Under the Blood Red Sun.

What would the U.S be called if everyone in it drove pink cars?

A pink-car-nation!

Alyssa and Paullinna Room 18, Grade 2

We are making our own newspaper. Our teacher went to China. She bought a tiger kite, a butterfly kite, a fish kite, and a dragon kite. Ms. Shavey brought some candy for us. Ms. Shavey walked on the Great Wall. Her son got engaged to his girlfriend on the Great Wall. We made dragon puppets and panda reports.

What goes "z-z-u-b, z-z-u-b"?

A bee flitting backwards!

Molly and Michala Room 1, Grade 1

We went on a field trip to the zoo. We are learning about money. We are looking forward to spring vacation.

There were five copy-cats. One went away. How many were left?

None - they were all copy-cats!
