News from the classroom.....

Katie and Zak Room 9, Grade 3

On Oct. 2 we went on a field trip to Camp Long. We studied plants there. It was fun!!!

In science we are learning about rocks and minerals. In social studies we are learning about maps. We are also learning how to write cursive letters. We are working on greater and less, and we are working on a story called "The Bad Haircut".

"Look at you", the old witch said. "You're no use to me until I cut off your head".

The witch is talking to a head of cabbage!

What has....

- eight legs like a spider
- two eyes like a spider
- looks just like a spider
- but is not a spider???

A picture of a spider!

Katie and Miranda Room 15, Grades 1&2

We went to a puppet show called "Sigi the Antelope". We have been learning how to balance stuff in science. We play math games. Mrs. Smith taught us art two times.

Why does the snake play the piano?

He has lots of scales!

Quynh and Max Room 19, Grade 2

On Wednesday, October 25th, room 19 went to the Northwest Puppet Center to see a puppet show called "Little Gillery Ghost". Friday we did a leaf project where we put leaves on an envelope and send them to our house. Our teacher sent home some homework so we can practice our addresses to get ready.

What do zombies like to drink?

Croaka-Cola!

Color these guys!

More classroom news.....

Trey and Jeremy Room 16, grades 1 & 2

We went to a West African puppet show, and it was fun because a chicken can trick a crocodile, and there's a talking yam and a boogie man. Soon we're going to do a musical play called "The Prince and the Penguin".

Here's a math problem: A pie has 8 slices and costs $9.00. What would 12 slices cost? _____

What is Transylvania?

Dracula's terror-tory!

Jenna and Brian Room 25, Grades 4&5

Room 25 went on a field trip to Salmon Homecoming the first week of school. I (Jenna) think it was a boring field trip to and from the field trip, but it was fun when we got there. I ate a hot dog, a sucker, chips, and lemonade. We made some salmon slime. We drank fresh pine water. We listened to songs and myths.

In class we've been reading a story out of the newspaper called "The Secret School". It is in the classified ads section. We also have been making Halloween things. We are making black cats and pumpkins. We have pen friends, and we have been writing to them.

Why didn't the skeleton cross the road?

He didn't have any guts!

_____ is enjoying this book.

Even more classrooms news...

Jaelynn and Hiep Room 24, Grade 5

In class we are doing doodle art. It is fun. I (Jaelynn) am being a hippy for Halloween. It is our turn to go swimming at the Evergreen Pool. I (Hiep) am going to be a werewolf. We are writing letters to our pen pals at the Bon Marche'.

Why did the mummy leave his tomb after 2,000 years?

He thought he was old enough to leave home.

Katrina and Johnny Room 22, Grade 4

On October 9 our class went to the Cedar River watershed for a field trip. It was fun. Our class is also excited about Book Character Day. We were going to go on another field trip to Judy Pickens' house on October 20th to count benthic macroinvertebrates in Fautleroy Creek watershed, but we didn't.

We are making things called eco-columns in class. They are things made out of bottles with fish inside.
